As the saying goes, United we stand, United Works Corporation (UWC) stands for its name.

UWC is a professionally managed organization under the management of a group of young and dynamic entrepreneurs belonging to diversified fields.

When energies of 16 individuals come together, they produce an effect greater than the sum of their individual outcomes, which suffices the sole aim of our union i.e. SYNERGY, creating something larger than life.

Innovative brains with high expertise and strong roots in various fields make DIVERSITY our core to establish a greater sense of collaboration and trust among the team, client and stake holders.

Working on a common node, we take all the decisions on the basis of wide-ranging CONSENSUS, with a selfless approach to attain set targets.

The COMMITMENT to the organization and the intense efforts we put in our work are greater than one finds in most other organizations.

Long term relationship & QUALITY of work are the accomplishments we strive for our client.

UWC is wedded to the goal of value enhancement. With a platform of sound qualities laid by the team members we touch the lives of people through a diversified presence in various segments:

THE EXPEDITION BEGAN...

The history of UWC stretches back to college times, when 16 individuals came together at a common point under the guidance of Mr. Manoj Thakker. The entire group bonded in a professional relation to attain individual and team excellence through a spirit of continuous learning, new ideals and a commitment to high levels of achievement.

Just like a Banyan tree, UWC's 16 pillars form the strength of company who are deep rooted and have strong establishment to attain the best outcome derived from diversity with absolute consensus and true commitment.

As the real foundation of a tree is not visible, similarly our skills and qualifications blend amongst each other in a very intricate manner and are not identified individually but as a union of proficiencies.

The trees interlinked roots and branches stand as a symbol to describe the unity within its diversity, UWC's various verticals grew one after the other with equivalent strength and individuality.

Correlating with a Banyan tree which stands for ever growing prosperity... a tree that provides shelter and protection to many... a seat of wisdom, we at UWC, work towards achieving

WEALTH MANAGEMENT

United We Capitalize, maximum benefits and pull out the best from investments.

UWC's strengths in the capital sector is its strong research team which continuously studies the ever changing market pattern so as to provide the best advice for maximum and best outcome.

This investment advisory discipline incorporates financial planning, investment portfolio management and a number of aggregated financial services.

We provide assistance of a credentialed financial advisory to coordinate retail banking, estate planning, legal resources, tax professionals and investment management.

UWC's wealth management R&D team use their experience and core conclusions in estate planning, risk management and their affiliations with tax and legal specialists, to manage the diverse holdings of high net worth clients.

"Honest & Unbiased opinion" is the core thought behind wealth management based on intense in-house research by professionals.

It is not about business of selling commissions & kickbacks, it is mainly for wealth maximization for everyone through investment in immovable properties, financial services, business projects and allied activities.

TEXTILES

United We Craft, ultimate comfort for the most integral element of one's survival.

UWC's venturing into the textile industry, one of the earliest to come in India, is to set new standards in the world of garment export and create a niche for itself in the this ever growing and diversified field.

As textile exporters, we successfully meet the demands of global readymade garment markets for product ranging from knitted to woven fabrics and T-shirts to night wares.

Our facilities and standards of performance meet international paradigms.

Our products are manufactured under the requisite statutes and regulations. By immaculate planning, we are able to strictly adhere to our delivery commitments. Exact size, shape, design, color, style, stitch, fabric quality and quantity, every bit is properly planned & executed.

Crafting the designs which is suited to target group and its cost effectiveness make business repositioned in every transaction.

At UWC, our commitment takes precedence over everything else. We believe our success is the result of our commitment to product quality and timely delivery.

This only can be facilitated by team's passion, which starts right from selecting & sourcing the fabric, selecting the design, convincing the client and finally deliver what has been committed in every single piece.

CONSULTANCY

United We Confront, the challenges of business, its risks, compliances, statutory obligations on behalf of our clients, so that they can work on their core business, leaving aside this issues to us.

UWC's role as a consultant is to provide an independent and expert opinion on a proposed business plan or decision. With our proficient team of expert professionals we ensure that all the consultancy related needs of the clients are satisfied by various services.

It is the qualification and vast experience in all aspects of this domain that enables us in analyzing the requirements of the clients and delivering business control to help them to protect and strengthen every aspect of their business from people to performance, systems to strategy, business plans to business resilience.

We help organization work smarter and grow faster. We provide consultation to our clients to build effective organization, innovate and grow, reduce cost, manage risk & leverage talent.

Making a mark, we help companies-from local startups to global enterprises-achieve profitable, solid growth. We founded our own business on the premise that strategic decisions made early in the project development process often determine the level of success a company achieves.

PUBLICATION

United We Communicate, some meaningful philosophies and thought of noble minds so that it reaches a common man enriching his life

In the society a publication house has a special role to play. 'Shiv Om Sai Prakashan' is dedicated to works which promotes intellectual excellence and is driven by the vision and values of UWC group. It was specially formed in search of unexplored talent and creativity.

At Sai Publication we offer a perfect combination of high quality content and strong sales promotional activities. Our effort is to provide the longest possible shelf life and widest possible readership to the book.

The mission behind the start of the publication house by UWC groups is as noble as the philosophies it publishes. The money generated by the group through this is used for social deeds like funding child education, getting poor girls married and others.

❑ Pran Kavya

'Pran Kavya' (philosophy), written by Shri Manoj Thakkar was released by 'Bharat Ratna Late Shri Bismillah Khan Saheb'.

It was a philosophic version of 'Madhushala' by Mr. Bachhan. It was appreciated by many renowned authors and artist from various sectors across the nation. Some of the eminent known authors opined, "Giving reviews on such a high level content is beyond our scope."

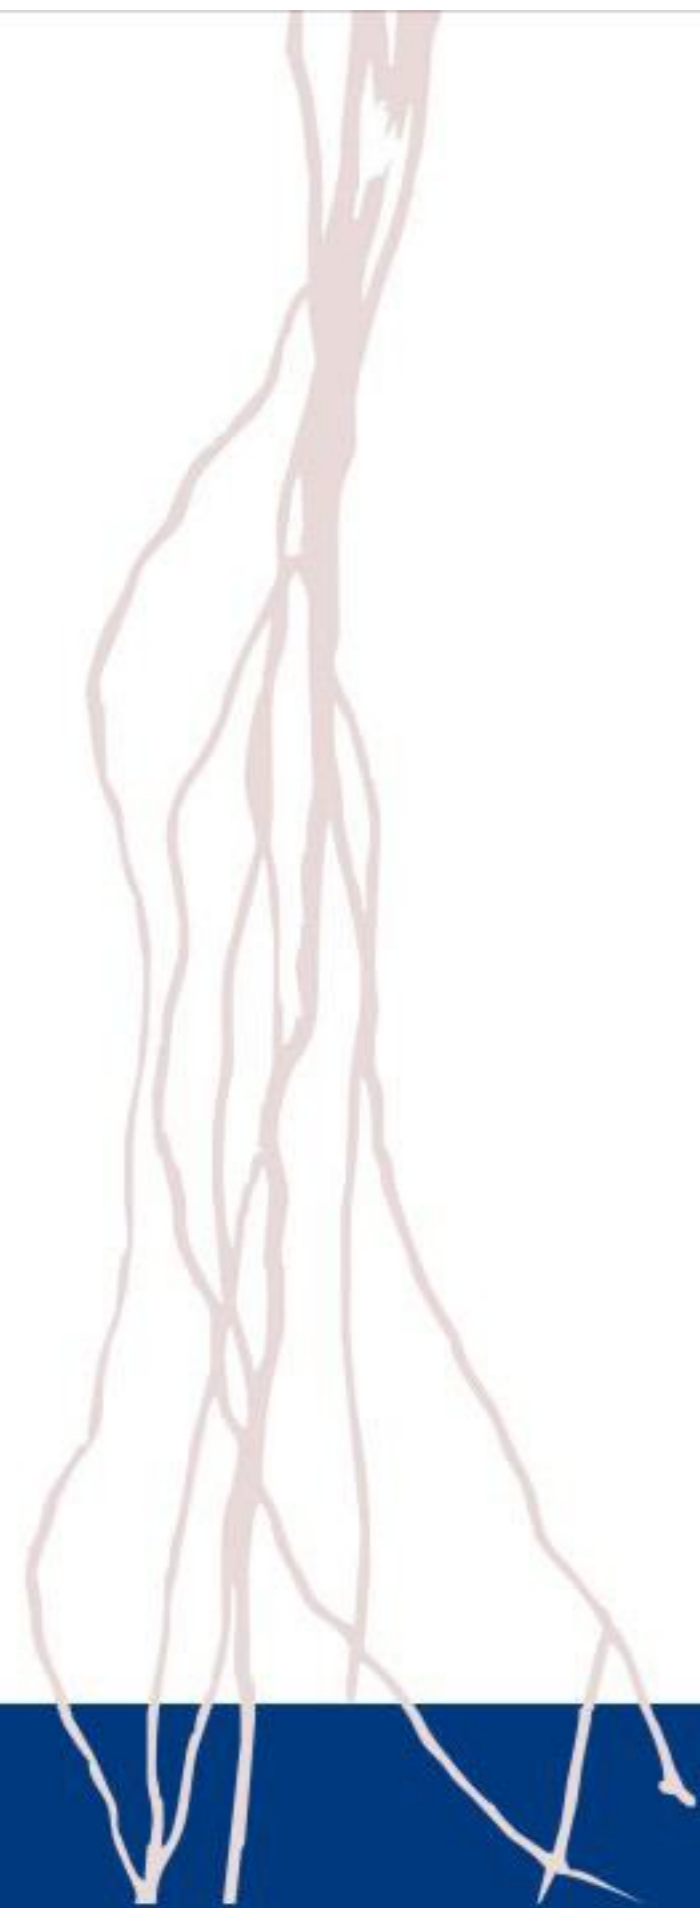

Till now all the copies of 'Pran Kavya' have been presented free to all.

❑ Kashi Marnanmukti

'Kashi Marnanmukti', a Hindi philosophic novel based on the spiritual journey of a Chandaal is written by Shri Manoj Thakkar and Rashmi Chhazed and released by Smt. Indu Jain, Chairperson, Times Group largest media conglomerate of India.

The story is based on the life of its protagonist 'Maha' who in the course of his spiritual journey to find his Guru, finds enlightenment and touches the height of divinity.

The novel includes messages from Vedas, Puraans and Upanishads which seem difficult to comprehend to today's generation in their original form while here the same content is much more understandable since it is available in a simpler narrative form like a story.

FOODS

United We Commit to deliver the best quality food products and edibles.

Encashing the immensely growing opportunities for food processing available in Madhya Pradesh, as it is the leading producer of good quality garlic, potatoes & onion in India, UWC has set its footsteps deep into the market of dehydrated food products.

Dehydration is one of the methods to preserve seasonal and perishable vegetable and make them available throughout the year in hygienic conditions at reasonable or low cost. Such dehydrated vegetables are easy to transport and cater to the needs of large catering establishments.

The market has good potential in food processing industries, defence, pharmaceutical industries, hotels and restaurants, caterers, etc.

Dehydrated vegetables are widely used as they are hygienic, unadulterated, maintain nutrition value, set on international quality standards, easy to use, compact to carry, and available round the year.

For the UWC Group, quality is a source of inspiration, satisfaction and pride. We aim at achieving maximum value addition to the raw material and its by-product utilization. Our initiative is to make a stand and contribute in this small captured organized sector of this industry.

To begin with, we cater mainly to the processing of Potatoes & Garlic.

- Potato Processing :

Exclusive quality & wide variety of dehydrated chips is our forte. They are the perfect bite for every time.

- Garlic Processing :

With the ease of usage, natural ingredients and nutritional value, dehydrated and processed into powdered form, these seasonings add the desired flavor to any and every food.
